International Assembly

District governors-elect attended the International Assembly in San Diego, California, USA, 16-22 January. Watch a video of RI President-elect Kalyan Banerjee announcing the theme for the coming year, and get ready for 2011-12 by downloading speeches, news articles, and photos.

Banerjee challenged incoming governors to draw on their inner resources to embrace humanity, and group discussion sessions prepared them for the responsibilities they will face.

For Larry Clauberg, governor-elect of District 4650 (Brazil), the assembly was a turning point. "It was an opportunity to experience how international Rotary really is. We are leaving the meeting as different people than we were when we arrived."

Your Voice, Your Solution

Some members of your club say their friends think Rotary is just for fun. And one member voiced concern that the word fellowship is interpreted to mean "friendship" rather than its Rotary meaning: "a strong relationship built on friendship, professional respect, and working together to provide service." How would you best convey the real meaning of fellowship within Rotary? How do you describe Rotary without using jargon?

Social networking

We recently started a Twitter campaign, asking club presidents-elect to share what they've been learning at the presidents-elect training seminar (PETS). Some notable tweets include:

- According to RI strategic plan our core values are: service, fellowship, diversity, integrity and leadership
- In D9140 we are "Game Changers" and it is all about owning Rotary and repositioning it for today's challenges!
- Went to Far West (US) Pets. Got cool tools on a flash drive for running an effective club.

Consider tweeting your PETS experiences. Use the hashtag #RCPETS.

Social networking has become an increasingly common tool for promoting events and speakers.

E-mail: leadership.training@rotary.org if you've used Facebook, Twitter, or another social media site to promote your training meeting.
